Small Business Definition: The Small Business Act states that a small business concern is "one that is independently owned and operated and which is not dominant in its field of operation." The law also states that in determining what constitutes a small business, the definition will vary from industry to industry to reflect industry differences accurately. SBA's Small Business Size Regulations implement the Small Business Act. SBA has also established a table of size standards, matched to North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) industries and considers "Affiliates" of the contractor in determining size. See 13 C.F.R. Part 121.

Small Disadvantaged Business: A small disadvantaged business is a small business which is at least 51% unconditionally owned by one or more socially and economically disadvantaged individuals and whose management and daily business operations are controlled by one or more socially and economically disadvantaged individuals.

In accordance with Section 3 of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 632) and Section 1341 of the Small Business Jobs Act of 2010, the Offeror/Subcontractor hereby certifies that it is:
